

JOHN E. W. WAYMAN COMMITTS SUICIDE

In Moment of Despondency He Fired the Fatal Shots Which Resulted In His Death

ILL HEALTH CAUSE OF ACT

Attorney Suffered Nervous Breakdown Which Brought on Despondency—Death Due to Hemorrhage Into Lungs

EXPRESSED REGRET FOR ACT

BULLETIN.
CHICAGO, APRIL 18.—John E. W. Wayman, former states attorney of Cook county and candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the last election, who shot himself in his home here yesterday afternoon died at 1:18 this morning. Death was caused by hemorrhage into the lungs. Mr. Wayman had been sinking steadily since the shooting.

CHICAGO, APRIL 17.—John E. W. Wayman, former state's attorney for Cook county, fired two bullets into his body at his residence at 3:40 p. m. today and is lying at the point of death. The cause ascribed was a nervous breakdown due to ill-health.

Had Recently Retired.
Wayman had recently retired from office and had gone into a law partnership with a former assistant. He had been conspicuous during his term in office in the prosecution of men accused of bribery in connection with the election of William Lorimer as United States senator; had been active at the close of his incumbency in closing the vice district in Chicago and had undergone a strain in an unsuccessful campaign for the Republican nomination for governor.

Warned Him to Quit Work.
For several weeks his physicians had warned him that unless he quit work entirely he would die. Yesterday he sought a physician at a hotel and received similar advice.

He became greatly discouraged and went to a hospital. He remained at the institution two hours and then went home, where he passed a sleepless night. He arose this morning, but did not dress, lying about the house all day clad in a bath robe. Late in the afternoon he turned a revolver upon himself, sending two bullets into his body below the heart.

Efforts of the family to conceal the facts of the attempted suicide resulted in the spread of sensational reports that Wayman had been assassinated by some criminal whose disfavor he had earned during his work as state's attorney, but these were afterward disproven.

Used Automatic Pistol.
Mr. Wayman shot himself with an automatic pistol, the property of one of his clients who had killed a man with the weapon. It was used in the fatal shooting of Edward Paul by Charles Lund in a labor quarrel.

Wayman was defending Lund. He was working on the case at his home and had the weapon before him with other exhibits in the case.

A little after 3 o'clock he told Mrs. Wayman and their children, who had come home from school, that he would go to his room for some rest. Mrs. Wayman heard the shots a few minutes later. She ran to his room, but could not see him. She threw open the closet door where her attention was drawn by the smell of burned powder. There she found Mr. Wayman in a heap on the floor with the pistol beside him.

Soon Regrets Rash Act.
"Doctor, you should have been with me. I certainly have made a fool of myself," were Mr. Wayman's first words to Dr. W. O. Krohn, who was the first physician to reach him and who restored him to consciousness.

"Tell me the straight truth, doctor," he added. "Have I a chance for my life?"

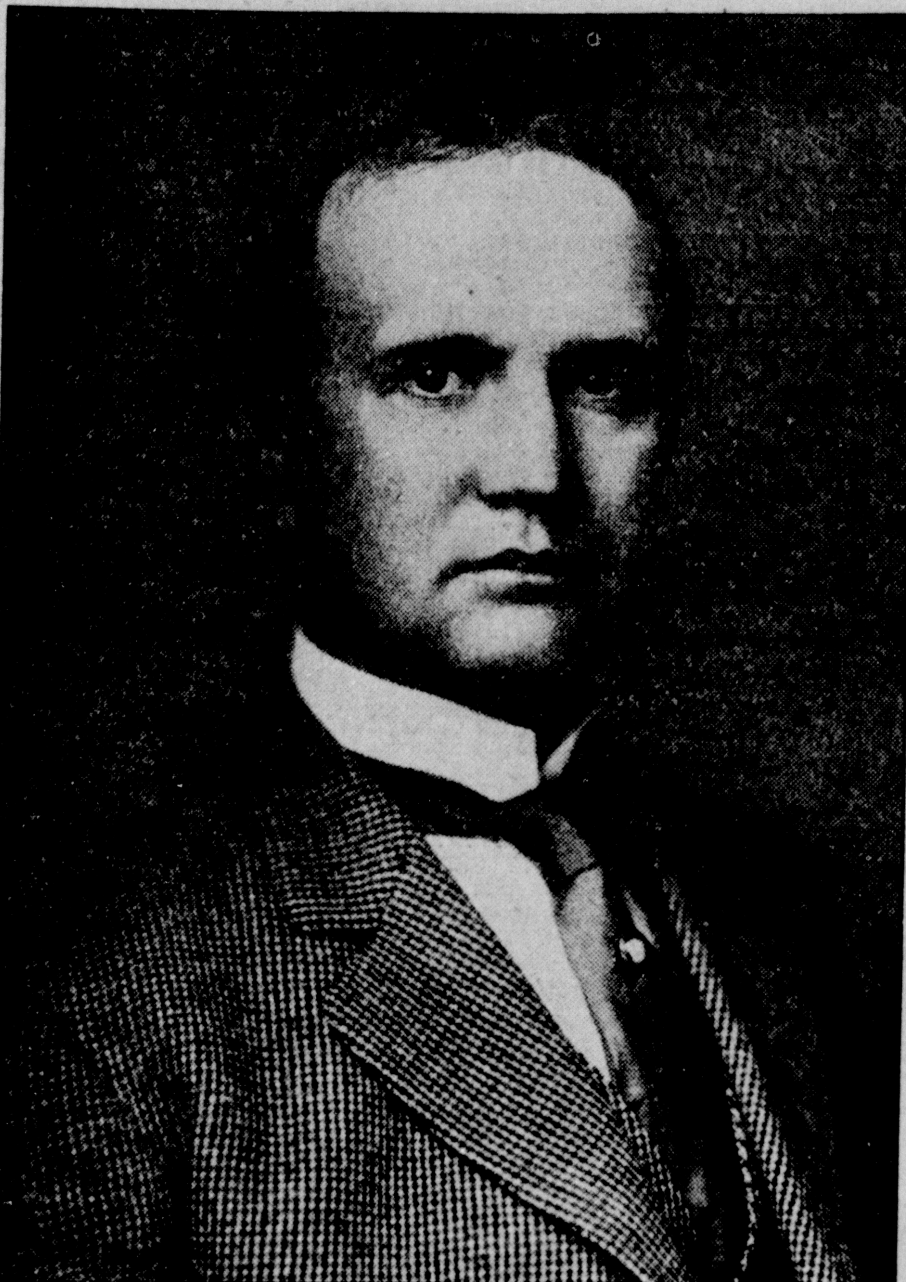

Dr. Krohn assured him that he had a good chance and Mr. Wayman appeared satisfied and his condition grew easier.

"There is a possible chance for the recovery of Mr. Wayman," reads a bulletin issued by Doctors Krohn and E. C. Williams tonight. "Improvement has been shown since the hemorrhage was stopped."

"Mr. Wayman has been extremely nervous for some time and went to his office Saturday against the advice of his physician, Dr. Williams," Dr. Krohn said when asked for the cause of Mr. Wayman's act. "The thought of shooting himself flashed through his mind today by some freak of mental process. There is a slight chance of his recovery."

The most severe wound from which Mr. Wayman suffered is two inches below his heart, where one of the bullets struck a rib and was deflected. The bullet was extracted without difficulty. The other made a clean hole through his left side and its wound is comparatively not serious.

Family Called to Bedside.
Members of Mr. Wayman's family were called to his bedside shortly after 10 o'clock tonight when W. K. Murray informed them that the patient was sinking. Otto Schram and Claude Smith, former assistants to Mr. Wayman when he was state's attorney, also were taken to his side.

Mr. Wayman, with a faint smile, recognized them and said: "Boys, I guess I must have had a little sand in my gear box when I did this thing."

His physicians would not allow the patient to say anything more.

Seven Chicago Suicides.
Seven persons committed suicide here today, the first perfect day of spring. The number would have been unusual if the day had been in the heat of mid-summer, according to psychologists. The period with the tendency to suicide is greatest. None of the suicides was seriously ill, or in financial difficulties or had quarrelled.

Dog Discovers Body.
The peculiar actions of a Shepard dog today aroused the curiosity of relatives of Godfrey Grupe and they followed the animal across a field to where the man's body lay. He had committed suicide. Grupe had been grieving for months, but refused to give the cause. He was a veteran of the civil war.

Another ballot will begin when the congress reconvenes tomorrow.

LOOK FOR SETTLEMENT.
Auburn, N. Y., March 17.—Machinists engaged in dismantling the twin mill of the International Harvester company's plant late to day were ordered to cease. This action followed the recognition by the International officers of John Williams state labor commissioner a mediator between the company and its striking employees. It was believed to be a settlement would be reached soon.

The International officers and previously refused to treat with others than the strikers.

HAS NO KNOWLEDGE OF FUNDS CORRUPTLY USED

CHICAGO MAN IS BROUGHT BEFORE THE BAR OF THE SENATE

Had Heard of Fund Being Raised to Influence Passage of "Puts and Calls" Bill—Other Legislative News.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., APRIL 17.—John Hull Jr., of Chicago, was brought before the bar of the senate to day and admitted he had knowledge of any funds being corruptly used to influence the passage of "puts and calls" bill in the senate.

He had heard of a fund being raised for use in promoting the bill and named Charles D. Pierce and Robert McDougall as men who had been asked to contribute to such fund. He also named Arthur E. Delaney and John E. Beloit as collectors for the fund. The senate voted to summon the men mentioned by him to appear before the senate next Wednesday for examination. They are connected with Chicago brokerage firms.

The senate adopted the report of the election committee recommending dismissal of the contests brought by Brown and Stepleton.

After the introduction of a number of bills the senate adjourned with the understanding that only a perfunctory session will be held tomorrow.

In the house, after the introduction of a number of bills, Representative Rapp reported that the arrangements have been perfected for the celebration of the one-hundredth anniversary of the birthday of Douglas on Tuesday afternoon. FRENCH MILITARY BALLOON COLLAPSES

FIVE OCCUPANTS ARE KILLED BY 650 FOOT DROP

Had Passed Over Paris When Observers Suddenly Saw it Shriveled Up and Fall—Cause of the Accident is a Mystery.

NOISY LE GRAND, FRANCE, APRIL 18.—The military balloon Zodiac collapsed at a height of about 650 feet today and fell to the ground with its five occupants all of whom were killed.

The Zodiac, which had a capacity of 1600 cubic meters, left the club park at St. Cloud with the military aeronauts Captains Clavand and Denoue, Lieutenant De Vaiselot and Artilleryman Rechy and the civilian pilot Aumont Thievie aboard. The balloon passed rapidly over Paris and arrived at Noisy Le Grand when observers suddenly saw it shrivel up and fall. Laborers working in the fields rushed to the assistance of the aeronauts but had difficulty in intrating them from the mass of silk.

Clavand, Rechy and Thievie were killed outright. Denoue and De Vaiselot were still breathing. They were rushed to the military hospital at Vincennes. Denoue died on the way. De Vaiselot died at the hospital. The collapse of the balloon was due to a tear in the cover, which apparently was made intentionally.

GOVERT MAKES STRONG APPEAL IN BEHALF OF PFANSCHMIDT

Declares That Evidence Against Rapp Was Manufactured to Shield Some One Else.

Quincy, Ill., April 17.—Declaring with vehemence that the evidence against Rapp Pfanschmidt was manufactured, the attorneys for the youth spent practically the entire day in their appeals to the jury to free the young man from the terrible charge hanging over him. Attorney George Govert occupied the time until 4:30 this afternoon. He was followed by Attorney Emory Lancaster, also for the defense who will probably occupy all the time at tomorrow morning's session. With Attorney John Wall's closing argument and the court's instructions still to be given is not probable that case will go to the jury before Saturday.

DISPOSE OF SILK, PULP AND PAPER SCHEDULES

All Proposed Amendments are Voted Down By Democratic Caucus

ACID ON FREE LIST

Phosphoric Acid Used In Preparation of Fertilizer Is Placed on Free List

OTHER WASHINGTON NEWS

WASHINGTON, APRIL 17.—Late in the day after the wool schedule had been approved without change the caucus disposed in short order of the silk, pulp and paper sundry schedules, voting down all proposed amendments. The free list was under consideration when the Democrats adjourned until tomorrow.

Representative Underwood admitted during the wool schedule discussion that the proposed rates might have serious effect upon some manufacturers. Representative Bathrick of Ohio moved to place manufactured wool and clothing on the free list, instead of dutiable at 35 per cent ad valorem as proposed.

The amendment was voted down 68 to 99. Another motion by Representative Bathrick to reduce the duty on ready made clothing to 15 per cent also was lost. Representative Decker a new member from Missouri criticised the ways and means committee and older members of the house, declaring that new men were not given ample opportunity to express their views.

Representative Thomas of Kentucky, replied that new members if they had had superior knowledge about tariff rates, should come forward with their information rather than criticise the committee.

Commending President Wilson for his part in the making of the tariff bill, Mrs. Thomas said:

"This city has been besieged by lobbyists, corporation lawyers, and manufacturers who came here telling this committee what they thought ought to be done with the tariff. Members of congress have told the committee what they thought. I want to say to you that the president of the United States, has just as much right as any other citizen to tell what he thinks and out of 4,000 items, he only expressed his opinion on two."

The pulp and paper schedule Representative O'Leary of New York, wanted to increase the rate of 15 per cent on pictures, calendars, labels, books, pamphlets, engravings, and cuttings to 25 percent, but this effort was futile and the entire schedule was approved as submitted by the committee.

When the free list was reached the attendance of the caucus had dwindled to a few members. An amendment proposed by Representative Bartlett of Georgia placing phosphoric acid on the free list was passed without any opposition. The committee fixed a duty of two cents a pound. Representative Bartlett argued that the acid was used in the preparation of fertilizer and to tax it would raise the price of fertilizer to the farmer.

This was the second change in the bill since the caucus began its consideration a week ago, shoe machinery having been the other item. The conference will complete the free list discussion early tomorrow and then take up the income tax. It will finish the bill this week and probably will report it to the house next Monday.

Outline Plan of Attack.
The Democratic tariff revision bill came in for its first attack in the senate to day and the skirmish outlined the scope and vigor of the fight that will be against it by the Republican politician forces when tariff discussion begins in the two houses.

Backed by requests from many interests for hearings on certain sections of the Underwood bill, Republican senators made a demand upon members of the finance committee for hearings and openly attacked the "secret legislation" now going on in the Democratic caucus of house members.

Democratic senators who replied to the attack made it clear that the finance committee does not plan to grant any public hearings. Senators Williams and Stone insisted full hearings had been given by the house committee before the bill was prepared while Republican senators declared that these hearings had been of little value because the rates of the Underwood bill were not then known.

With many complaints and objections before them Republican members of the senate are preparing for a general attack on all schedules of the bill. Senator Root has put two experts at work to analyze the Underwood bill and previous measures to give the protectionists forces a basis for their fight. Other Republicans who claim that important industries would be wiped out by the Underwood bill will again insist that business men and laboring men should have an opportunity to be heard before the new bill is passed.

The Democratic house caucus worked over the Underwood bill throughout the day, upholding the Democratic house leaders and President

JAPANESE PROTEST AGAINST LAND LAW

HOLD MONSTER MASS MEETING IN TOKIO TO MAKE SPEECHES

Twenty Thousand Hear Orators Protest Against the Alien Land Law and Denounce the Submission Attitude of the Japanese Government.

TOKIO, APRIL 17.—A demand that the Japanese government resort to arms was hysterically cheered at a mass meeting here tonight to protest against the alien land bill now before the California legislature. Twenty thousand persons assembled and listened to addresses by various orators, who, however, are not affiliated with any organization and younger chauvinists. The speakers also denounce the submissive attitude of the government. The responsible newspapers of Tokio, in commending editorially on the meeting, denounce the proceedings as undignified and unworthy the nation, describing them as merely an outburst of the unthinking extreme element incited by political demagogues.

Increases Difficulty.
Washington, April 17.—Comparison today of the proposed alien land holding legislation in California with similar statutes in force for years in the District of Columbia and several states, revealed to white house officials increased difficulty in handling the protest entered by Japan.

It was pointed out at the white house that no foreign nation had ever entered protest against these existing laws. Incidentally word reached here that while the bills in the senate and house at Sacramento differed, eventually a bill would be agreed upon along the lines of alien land laws in New York state, the District of Columbia. The federal government is not sanguine of appeasing popular opinion in Japan, though it does hope to satisfy the Tokio government of its helplessness to affect changes that would remove the Japanese objections.

WILL URGE COUNTY FAIR FOR EACH COUNTY OF THE STATE

State Board of Agriculture Has Appointed Committee to Assist in Promoting These Fairs.

Springfield, Ill., April 17.—A county fair for each county of the state is a new slogan of the state board of agriculture. With the object of accomplishing all the slogan implies a standing committee of pointed to assist in promoting these fairs.

The resolution which was offered by Martin Conrad of Chicago, makes the point that each county, whether having a fair or not pays a tax for that purpose.

The personnel of the committee appointed to assist in the promoting of the fairs is:

B. M. Davidson, J. K. Dickerson, J. K. Hopkins, Frank Thorner and A. U. Burke.

SMALL POX CLOSES SCHOOLS.
Rock Island, Ill., April 17.—Two public school buildings here were ordered closed to day when one of the pupils was found to be suffering with smallpox. A number of cases are scattered over the city.

Wilson upon all contested points. The woolen schedule was under fire throughout to day's session. Attempts to put ready-made clothing on the free list and to alter other rates in the bill were defeated.

Wilson's Nominations.
Among President Wilson's nominations sent to the senate to day were:

The United States board of general appraisers, Jerry B. Suyllvan, Iowa. Collector of internal revenue, Herbert Manson, second district, Wisconsin.

Recorder of the general land office, Lucius Q. C. Lamar.

Assistant Attorney general of the United States before the court of claims, Samuel Houston Thompson Jr., of Denver, Colorado.

Nominations determined upon which probably will not be sent to the senate until next week are:

Ambassador to Japan, George W. Guthrie of Pennsylvania.

Charles R. Crane of Chicago, ambassador to Russia.

Minister to Spain, Frederick C. Penefield of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Guthrie, Democratic state chairman in Pennsylvania, originally was slated for the ambassadorship to Mexico, but it is now probable that no new representative will be sent to Mexico City for some time, although it is practically certain that Henry Lane Wilson will not be retained. To send a new ambassador to Mexico at present would be to recognize the Huerta government, a situation which the United States is not yet ready to meet.

Mr. Penefield has had experience in the foreign service, having been stationed at London in 1885 as vice-consul general and later diplomatic agent and consul general to Egypt with rank of minister-resident.

Mr. Crane it was said at the white house to day, can go to St. Petersburg if he so desires. There always has been some doubt however as to whether he could give up his business interests soon enough to go abroad and this question, it is understood has not been finally settled.

POPE'S CONDITION MORE HOPEFUL

Official Bulletins Issued Relieve Present Anxiety ---Still Very Weak

FEAR THIRD RELAPSE

Some Fear Another Relapse Owing to Pontiff's Weakness and Likely to Disobey Orders

PASSES DAY WITHOUT FEVER

ROME, APRIL 17.—Medical skill and strong vitality have combined to bring about a more hopeful change in the condition of Pope Pius. The official bulletins issued today relieved present anxiety, but there are some who fear a third relapse, owing to the general weakness of the pontiff and because he is inclined to disobey the orders of the attending physicians.

Tonight's bulletin of the pope's condition says:

"His holiness passed a good day without fever. This evening his temperature is 98. The improvement in the bronchial symptoms continues." (Signed) "Marchiafava."

Early today the pope declared he felt better than at any time since his first relapse. The sun pouring into the chamber impelled him to leave his bed which he did without assistance.

Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, visited the pope this evening, and having first obtained permission from the doctors, submitted for his signature several important questions. His hand writing was firm and clear.

The deep concern of the Italian government in the illness of the pope was manifested today when a request was made to those in charge of the case for a statement regarding the prognosis. This was met with the declaration that it was practically impossible to say whether the pontiff would recover, but that if he did his condition hereafter might be considered precarious.

Princess Belmonte, lady in waiting to the Dowager Queen Margherita, went to the vatican this afternoon where she requested, from Manager Bressan detailed information of the progress of the pope in the name of the queen mother, whose most earnest wishes for his recovery she brought. The relations between the members of the house of Savoy and Cardinal Sarto before he was elected pontiff were always of the most cordial nature.

When King Humbert and Queen Margherita visited Venice in 1895, Patriarch Sarto applied to Rome for instructions. Cardinal Rampolla, then papal secretary of state, suggested that he leave Venice, but left the decision to the patriarch. Cardinal Sarto visited the sovereigns and invited them to the patriarchy where he sat between them. After a moment King Humbert smiling asked:

"What would Rome say if Rome could see us?"

In answer the patriarch handed him Rampolla's letter to read. Then he added:

"But in Venice I am master."

Many Cardinals at Vatican.
Many cardinals, high prelates, members of the aristocracy and the grand master of the Knights of Malta called at the vatican to make inquiries and showed great relief at the favorable reports.

Dr. Amici visited the patient twice during the night and administered remedies for the cough and cholera for restlessness; after which the pontiff went tranquilly to sleep.

In spite of the official reports there were reports emanating from other sources that the pope is suffering from arterio sclerosis and a variety of other diseases, but the doctors deny this.

Many remedies have been received at the vatican, and the pope has been especially touched by the thoughtfulness of a venetian pharmacist who attended to the needs of the Patriarch Sarto in Venice. He sent a preparation of his own manufacture which Professor Marchiafava, after analysis approved and prescribed.

WATERS STILL HIGH.

Report of Levy Breaking in Two Places Recently.

L. F. O'Donnell was a business visitor in Pike county Thursday and one of the Jacksonville citizens to view the high water of that region. Mr. O'Donnell stated last night that the levy had broken in two places just before Valley City is reached and a wide track of land is feeling the effects of the big leakage. The breaks are about three-quarters of a mile apart. The levees were built recently according to specifications and passed on by the board of supervisors, so the board will have to stand the loss of making the repairs.

Mr. O'Donnell stated that the water was still from 6 to 8 inches above the Wabash tracks and that the company had a force of men hauling sand and rocks. The company expects the tracks to be in pretty bad shape after the water recedes.

FISHERIES BUREAU REPORTS

Over Two Billion Eggs Collected for Planting in 1912.

Washington, April 17.—The annually increasing commercial value of the work of the United States Bureau of Fisheries is shown by the fact that in the first eight months of the present fiscal year the number of eggs collected for planting exceeds by $34,000,000 the number gathered in the same period last year. The number so far this year reaches the total of 2,185,000,000, against 1,351,000,000 in 1912.

The greatest gain has been in white fish eggs from the great lakes, where this year's take has been $34,000,000, an increase of 380,000,000. In lake trout the increase has been from 59,000,000 to 69,000,000. On the New England coast this year's gathering of pollock eggs has been $67,000,000, a gain of $59,000,000.

At Gloucester, Mass., last year's haddock egg collection totaled 160,000,000, and this year's will exceed that by many millions. All the haddock eggs are taken from fish caught for market, so that eggs which otherwise would be sold and eaten are saved from further propagation.

Dog salmon egg collection shows the largest gain on the Pacific coast, this year's take having been 20,000,000 against 3,200,000 last year.

REFUSE TO ADVISE TRUSTS

McReynolds Declares He Is Not Legal Adviser of Government.

Washington, April 17.—Attorney General McReynolds declines to be counsel for the "trusts" of the United States. As the chief legal officer of the Federal Government, he is receiving scores of requests for advice as to whether certain lines of action by combinations of capital would violate the Sherman law, or some anti-trust decree under it. He has steadfastly refused to commit the Department of Justice to interpretations of law because such a course requiring comprehensive investigations and study, would virtually make the Department of Justice, he thinks, the legal advisory adjunct of commercial interests.

Among many others this attitude was made known to W. P. G. Harding of Birmingham, Ala., who asked if the government would object to the American Wire Company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, completing a proposed steel plant at Carey, Ala., work on which was stopped some time ago.

The attorney general would not indicate whether the government would regard this as an improper move, in view of the pending suit against the so-called "steel trust."

MEMORABLE ANNIVERSARY RECALLED BY ALEX WHITLOCK

Well Known Franklin Citizen Relates Incident When Union Soldiers Ran Blockade at Vicksburg.

Alex Whitlock, a veteran of the Civil war and one of the substantial citizens of Franklin, recalls the time when the union boys ran the blockade at Vicksburg. The Franklin Times in speaking of the incident says:

"Wednesday was a memorable day in the recollection of Alex Whitlock. Fifty years ago yesterday, on April 16, 1863, Mr. Whitlock and a lot of other 'boys in blue' ran the blockade at Vicksburg on a union gunboat and over which rained a hail of confederate shot and shell and speculated on whether or not he would ever see home folks again.

"Of all that gallant company, Mr. Whitlock knows of only two survivors besides himself, Richard Cox and Wiley Todd, both of Waverly. The late W. T. Lattrell was among the number, and during the engagement was wounded by a flying splinter caused by a shell which struck the grating through which he was watching the enemy. Mr. Whitlock was near at the time and recalls the circumstance well. Two days later, on April 18, they took part in the big scrap at Grand Gulf, where the confederates had some strong batteries posted at the mouth of the Big Black river.

"Speaking of the siege of Vicksburg and running the blockade there, 'Uncle Rich' Seymour told us of a laughable incident in which the late 'Shell' Wright was the central figure.

"Co. H, 101st Illinois, recruited here, had been doing duty on the gunboat Lafayette and when time came to run the batteries orders were issued that the soldiers on the several gunboats disembark and march around the city and embark again after they had passed the batteries, leaving the boats to run the blockade in charge of the crew and a few sharpshooters, of which Mr. Whitlock was one of those on the Lafayette. This was presumably done so that if a boat were sunk as few men would be lost as possible.

"While Co. H was going ashore a howitzer, or small cannon, was being unloaded from the upper deck and the crane swung it out above the heads of the soldiers on the gang plank. They were in no danger, but some one called out to them to look out for it. Mr. Wright was among those who glanced up and saw the gun dangling in the air above his head. He forgot where he was and in his haste to get out of the way stepped off into the river.

"As he was loaded down with a musket, eighty rounds of ammunition, his knapsack and rations for ten days, he went down like a plummet. It was several seconds before he came up, and when he did so Mr. Seymour and another member of the company, Al Braswell by name, caught hold of his knapsack and pulled him out, none the worse for his wetting but exceedingly regretful over the loss of 'Old Brindle' as he affectionately designated his army mule on account of his vari-colored stock.

"He secured another gun and with Mr. Seymour and the rest of the boys was able to give a good account of himself at Grand Gulf two days later. That was fifty years ago yesterday, but both Mr. Whitlock and Mr. Seymour seem to recall the incidents of those stirring times almost as well as if they had transpired only a few days since."

If you want to laugh—see Mrs. Briggs tonight, Odd Fellows Temple.

GETS FIVE YEARS FOR ENTERING CAR. St. Louisan First Convicted Under Law Protecting Interstate Shipments.

A sentence of five years in the Leavenworth penitentiary was imposed on Philip Nagel by Judge Dyer in the United States district court at St. Louis following his conviction on a charge of having entered a box car in the Bremen yards about two months ago. The indictment and conviction of Nagel is the first under the new federal statute making it a felony to break into an interstate shipment of merchandise or other freight. Nagel, in his defense, declared he was driven into the car where he was captured at the point of a revolver in the hands of a private watchman of the Terminal railroad association.

The car Nagel entered contained an interstate shipment of scrap copper and originated on the Santa Fe system. The jury deliberated about an hour before returning a verdict against him.

PROF. QUIGLEY ADDRESSES

MEMBERS OF DRAMA LEAGUE

Lady Gregory and the Minor Irish Dramatists Subject Thursday at Public Library.

The second lecture in the series arranged for at the public library by the Drama league was given Thursday evening at 8 o'clock by Prof. Thomas H. Quigley of Rount college. "The Rising of the Moon" and "Spreading the News," both by Lady Gregory, were read, preceded by a short talk on that author as well as T. C. Murray, Lennox Robinson, Rutherford Mayne and St. John G. Ervine.

"The Rising of the Moon" strikes a patriotic note by depicting a sergeant of the police whose love for Ireland gets the better of his sense of duty. "Spreading the News" is a delightful farce in which news, rising from nothing, spreads until it reaches the proportions the story of a murder. The dialogue and characterization in both plays is excellent and typical of the author.

Next Monday Dr. Rollin H. Tanner of Illinois college will talk on the "Origin of the Drama."

Owing to the interest shown in the subject, Miss Weber has prepared a list of books on the Celtic revival in the library. They are:

Ervine—Mixed Marriage.
Gregory—Poets and Dreamers.
Gregory—Seven Short Plays.
Murray—Birthright.
Murray—Maurice Hart.
Synge—Shadow of the Glen.
Synge—Riders to the Sea.
Weygandt—Irish Plays and Playwrights.
Yeats—Olcorn From the Stars.
Yeats—Hour Glass and Other Plays.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mrs. H. K. Chenoweth of 280 Sandusky street entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Elizabeth Stamm of Wheeling, W. Va. Bridge whist was played and the prizes were won by Mrs. George Lukeman and Miss Bess Smith, the guest prize going to Miss Stamm. Dainty refreshments were served.

The bi-monthly social of the Knights of Columbus was held Thursday evening. This was the first euchre party held in the new hall and largely attended. The first ladies' prize was won by Miss Mabel Lonerkan and the first gentleman's prize by James Coffee.

INJURIES TO EYES MAY PROVE FATAL TO SIGHT

Kenneth Smock, aged 13 of Roodhouse was brought to the city Thursday, suffering from an injury to his right eye. He was accompanied by Dr. J. R. Thomas. The boy was taking a curtain from a buggy with a knife, when the knife slipped and struck him in the eye. The member was operated on by Dr. A. L. Adams and Dr. Thomas. They feel that there is little chance of saving the sight.

Harding Orville, aged 6 years of Versailles, was brought to Passavant hospital Thursday where Dr. Adams performed an operation on his right eye. The little fellow was out playing with some other children when he ran a sharp stick in his eye. His condition is quite serious.

RETURN FROM CONVENTION.

Edward Hopper, W. H. Anderson and G. V. Skinner have returned from Bloomington, where they attended the sessions of the State Horsemen's association. The place for holding the next meeting was left to the incoming executive board.

The following was the election of officers:

President—J. R. Huenling, Chicago.

First vice-president—C. G. Lust, Alton.

Second vice-president—F. H. Edwards, Peoria.

Secretary and treasurer—Charles E. Cachel, East St. Louis.

State organizer—F. R. Carey, Springfield.

W. H. Anderson of this city and F. R. Cary of Springfield was selected to draft a constitution and by-laws for the new association when a charter will be applied for at once.

CONCRETE WALK TO CEMETERY

The village Board of South Jacksonville has received some favorable comments, relative to the action they took at their meeting in regard to building a sidewalk to Diamond Grove cemetery. It should have been said that this walk is to be of concrete and four feet wide. Several hundreds of dollars will be necessary to put the walk through and as it is outside the city limits all citizens will have an opportunity to contribute something toward the project. The stretch is about a half a mile long. There is a possible chance that the state may be induced to make a substantial contribution toward the walk. One citizen in speaking of the Board's action said "it's a good thing and something that has long been needed. I am in for it and you can count on me for a contribution."

SONG RECITAL TONIGHT.

The song recital of Mr. and Mrs. Ridgely Hudson and Mrs. Mary Berdy Tiffany of Springfield, at the Academy hall this evening at 8 o'clock promises to be a musical event of more than usual interest. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson will sing a number of duets and will also be heard separately in a group of songs. All three of the musicians have been heard in this city previously and with great pleasure.

CONTEST AT CHANDLERVILLE

William N. Hargrove was in Chandlerville Thursday where he was called in consultation in a pending election contest case. In the recent election there the candidate for the office of president of the town board had a difference of but one vote in the totals as given by elections judges and clerks. A recount is to be asked.

BIG JUMP IN EARNINGS.

Announcement has been made by Alton officials of a big jump in earnings for the first week in April following a slump in February and March. During the first week of April, the road earned $269,052, which was $47,428 more than the same week a year ago. Since July 1, the road has earned $11,897,297, which is an increase of $285,003. The earnings for the second week of April, as well as the entire month, promise to show an equal increase and it is likely that the gain for the month will be fully $200,000, making up almost entirely for the loss in February and March.

ALTON OFFICIAL MEETS YOUTH HE SAVED WHEN A BABE

John Bott Was Picked Up From Tracks by Trainmaster Butler While Standing on Engine's Pilot.

Walking into the sanctum of Trainmaster J. J. Butler of the Alton in Bloomington recently, a good looking stalwart youth of 18, asked the official if he remembered him. Receiving a reply negative, the stranger introduced himself as John Bott of Godfrey, reminding the official that seventeen years ago, he saved Bott's life at the imminent peril of his own. Neither had seen the other since and the meeting after the lapse of years was full of interest to both. The story of Trainmaster Butler's action has been told in years gone by, but it is well worth repeating, as it has never had a parallel on the Alton. Seventeen years ago, Trainmaster Butler was a fireman, running on the old Prairie State with Engineer Lyman Benjamin, long since deceased. While their train was approaching Godfrey one bright spring morning, the crew were horrified to see a baby toddle across the right of way and walk upon the track directly in the path of the fast moving locomotive. Engineer Benjamin applied the air and did everything he could to stop the train, but the distance was too short. Fireman Butler was equally quick in his movements. Like a flash he darted through the cab window, ran alongside the running board, dropped upon the pilot, and standing upon the steps and holding on with one hand, seized the baby by its dress and lifted it up to safety as the ponderous engine rolled over the spot where the little one had been standing but a moment before, all unconcerned over its danger. The parents were profoundly grateful for the remarkable action of the fireman, but he made light of it. The years passed and the baby grew to youth. The young man had been visiting his brother in Chicago and determined to stop off at Bloomington and thank the man who had saved his life and whom he had never seen since that morning when, as a babe, he was saved from a cruel death. The meeting was affecting to both the trainmaster and young Bott. It was one of the most remarkable incidents in the history of the Alton road and a pleasant interpolation in the daily grind of railroadings.

REV. FR. O'HARA LEAVES.

Pike County Democrat: Rev. Father O'Hara, who a short time since returned from Milwaukee where he spent six months in a sanitarium in a vain attempt to regain his health, left for Jacksonville, where he entered a hospital for an indefinite period. Shortly after returning from Milwaukee the bishop ordered him to Mr. Sterling to take charge of that parish, but being unable on account of ill health to comply with the bishop's orders, he tendered his resignation and went to the hospital as above stated. Fr. O'Hara came here from Murrayville, in Morgan county, about thirteen years ago and took charge of St. Mary's church in this city and during that time under his pastorate the church has prospered and he was made many warm friends who are sorry to have him leave. He was a companionable, warm hearted gentleman who made friends of those with whom he came in contact, both in and out of the church and will be greatly missed by the citizens of this entire community, where he has so long resided and been one of us. His place at St. Mary's will be filled by Rev. Fr. Foley who for the past six or seven years has been in charge of St. Peter's church in the Quincy and who entered upon the duties of his new charge last Sunday. Rev. Fr. Doyle, who has been in charge of St. Mary's during Fr. O'Hara's absence and made many friends here, has been transferred to the church at Grafton, Ill.

LAKOTA, NORTH DAKOTA ITEMS.

A member of the Woodson colony now living in North Dakota has written the Journal the following items about former Morgan county residents:

The various families arrived in good shape and all well pleased with their new homes.

Chas. E. Henry, wife and Walter Hickham arrived Nov. 2, the past week and were met at the train by a delegation of former Woodsonites. Newton Shelton and family took dinner with C. E. Henry and family Sunday.

Mrs. Oswald Wardle and Miss Hazel Megginson were visiting in Lakota Monday.

Sinclair Russel was hauling seed grain one day this week. Most farmers are busy seeding this week.

Chas. E. Henry commenced seeding April 10th on the big farm and Clayton Bros. started on the 14th.

J. Y. Henry and Newton Shelton visited in Grand Forks Monday.

Roscoe Stickler and Elmer Haydon visited at Devil's Lake Sunday.

Mrs. Lena Henry and Mrs. N. Shelton were visiting Mrs. Jas. Stickland Monday.

There are plenty of geese and ducks in the lakes now and the prairie chickens have on their strutting clothes.

F. W. Henry's three children have fully recovered from the measles.

Charles Asher and Jap Henry have left the McFadden hotel to clerk for Oswald Wardle.

Three horse teams went through town Saturday with some fine seed wheat for the big farm.

JUDGE L. Q. C. LAMAR

"Fourteen years ago, my dear Madam," said Mr. Lamar to me, "I left my seat in congress and went to obey the call of my beloved state, Mississippi. She is my state, though I first saw the sunlight in Georgia. Her claim I held as more binding than that of the nation, and I stood firmly by her when the parting came."

"In resigning I told my colleagues that the great state of Mississippi regretted the necessity which impelled her to the course which she had adopted, but which course met with our most hearty and unqualified approval, and that she looked back with tender regret to the union, whose destiny we had wished to share, and under the protection of whose broad nationality we had hoped to live and die."

"It must have seemed strange to you to be here again."

"Yes, thirteen years had passed when I was elected to the forty-third congress. When I went in who do you think was the first one to greet me? Alexander H. Stephens. He looked me up and down, and then simply said, 'Back again?' I looked him over and said, 'Yes, Mr. Stephens, back again—both of us.'"

"Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus," said Mr. Blaine one day, reading my signature aloud. "Yes, Mr. Blaine," I replied, "that gentleman was a favorite of my uncle who named me. I shall try to live up to the name, though I shall do it in secret as L. Q. C." "You left the United States congress to enter the confederate army, did you not?" Mr. Blaine continued. "Yes," I proudly answered, "I entered the confederate army as colonel of a Mississippi regiment. Perhaps I should have gotten back into congress earlier if you had joined the opposing army as colonel of a Maine regiment."

Mr. Lamar was an orator of unusual ability and eloquence and could do anything with words to the utmost limits of their value. He was probably the only man living who was linguistically subtle enough to deliver an eulogy upon Charles Sumner which awakened the admiration not only of congress but of the entire north, and at the same time did not displease the south.

He was a man of apparently opposing qualities, his dreamy, poetic mind being capable of the most practical views and methods. Though imaginative and absent minded and with an air of reserve as if engaged in deep study, he was yet considerate, affectionate and well fitted for the winning of friends. Faithful to his constituents and the institutions of his state, he was an admirable figure in southern politics. One of his colleagues said of him:

"There is strangely admixed in the mind of Lamar with his typical Americanism 50 per cent of Orientalism."

The last time I saw Mr. Lamar was in his office when he was secretary of the interior in Mr. Cleveland's first administration. A very beautiful child was standing on his desk and the secretary was kissing the little hands and feet and the golden hair.

"I remember, Mr. Secretary," said I, "when I saw you kiss Mr. Clement C. Clay, and I shall never forget the heart loving letter you wrote to him just after his release from Fort Monroe, which Mrs. Clay showed me, pleading with them to come and make their abode with you, saying that they had a large house and that you would share it and your last dollar with them."

"Dear old Clay! Dear old Clay!" smiling in tender memory.

Then he caressed the little child and said:

"If only my Nellie could have seen him," referring to his beautiful wife, but the B. P. O. E. can and will. Make us prove it!" Below the greeting is a description of the tri-cities—Rock Island, Davenport and Moline. The arsenal, Black Hawk's Tower and Campbell's island and three historic spots that are well worth visiting. The program for the state meeting is a very inviting one, and thousands of Elks will attend.

Athletics Take First Game of Season at Shibe Park From Red Sox by Score of 6 to 5—Thomas and Murphy Lead With Strike.

CHICAGO, APRIL 17.—Approximately 28,000 enthusiasts greeted the opening of the American league baseball season here and saw Chicago defeat Cleveland, 2 to 1. The game was a pitchers' battle between Scott and Mitchell. The former allowed the visitors but three hits, while Mitchell was touched for two, which came in one inning; these coupled with a base on balls and two errors cost the visitors the victory.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 17.—A base on balls off O'Brien with the bases full and no one out in the ninth inning forced in Daley with the winning run of the opening game of the American league season here today, the score being, Philadelphia 6, Boston 5.

Bush, who took Bender's place in the third inning, pitched fine ball. Ray Collins was effective for six innings, but in the eighth singles by Murphy, Gidding, E. Collins and Baker drove him off the rubber. O'Brien took Ray Collins' place and a sacrifice fly by Lapp sent in the tying run. Thomas and Murphy led both teams in the batting. It was the first game played at Shibe Park at increased prices of admission and nearly all the stands were filled. The score:

GIANTS WIN EXTRA
INNING CONTEST

CAPTAIN DOYLE IS PARTICULAR
STAR OF THE DAY.

After Seymour's Double Had Tied the Score Doyle's Fourth Hit of the Day Scored Fletcher and Tied up the Game For New York.

BOSTON, APRIL 17.—A two base hit by Cy Seymour, sent in as a pinch hitter today, put two runs over in the ninth inning and tied the score, and New York won, 2 to 1, in the tenth. In that inning Captain Doyle of the visitors hit safely for the fourth time, scoring Fletcher. The Bostonians found there were men on bases. In the second inning Boston filled the bases with no one out, but Titus was forced at the plate and the next two batters struck out. The score:

GOSSIP OF THE GAME

Getting hot! Every game yesterday was the real thing.

Chance should get rid of that bull dog by next freight. It is a jinx if the result of the opening game at home goes as an indication.

The Yankees must have been decidedly in form if five errors counted against them; it is to be considered in any other light.

Perdue has developed into one of the greatest pitchers in the game. His best asset is steadiness under fire. That was characteristic of him in his minor league days with Vincennes. Hub pitched many a dual with Bill Fox and Allen in those days and didn't always get away with it either.

Mr. Tyrus Cobb has informed President Navin that the Tigers will have to get along without his distinguished services unless Mr. Navin meets the Georgian's terms. Whether the former will do so or not in great measure depends upon the record the Detroit bunch makes in its present home stand. If they win a majority of the games they will be left with no devices as far as remaining out of the game this season goes.

Good game that at Pittsburgh. Cincinnati always plays better on the road than at home. One reason is because they are out of the short of that gang in the right field seats at the Palace of the Fans. Old timers refer to it as "Death Row." It has killed so many promising players.

When Groom is going right there is not a club in the business that has any because of his best days. Yesterday was one of his best days.

Mr. Connie Mack is jealous of the Senators. He says there will be nothing to the race this year outside his own team and Stahl's. Mr. Mack has another thing coming.

Another old time star of the minors of twenty years ago figures in today's Athletic-Boston game, Gene McGreevy, who used to be a Quincey and Bloomington twirler. Many of the ancient fans will recall him. He also umpired in the Central for a time.

Evers got there. A win is a win and counts just as much whether made off a tail-ender as off a head-liner.

Matty pitched one of his old time games. He was tight in the pinches. Players say he is easy to hit when nobody is on, but the minute anybody gets on the paths there is a change and he becomes next to invincible.

Larry Doyle topped all the league batsmen with four hits. He has evidently found that good old eye of his again.

Boston came near equalling the record set by the Cubs for the number of players used in a game. Stallings sent in seventeen in his effort to cop against the Giants. Two shot of the number used by John of Troy.

This thing of using so many extra players is probably for the purpose of giving some of the youngsters their baptism of fire. The limit of twenty-five men which each club may carry will soon go into effect and the axes will commence to swing. A pretty choice lot has come up this year.

Wonder what's become of Thorpe, the world beater? Plucked a little too soon evidently.

Signa Fight Contract.
Los Angeles, Calif., April 17.—Articles of agreement for the feather-weight championship fight between Johnny Kille and Johnny Dundee at Vernon on April 28 were signed today by the fighters' managers. It was agreed the men should weigh 122 pounds at 9:15 o'clock the night of the contest and he in the ring fifteen minutes later.

SCHULTE GETS HIS FIRST OFFICIAL HOME RUN OF THE SEASON.

Bat Work of Zimmerman, Schulte and Evers Was Mainly Responsible for Chicago's Run—Bresnahan Presented Diamond Fob.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 17.—Chicago piled up a big score off Griner in the first game of the local National league season here today.

Zimmerman, Schulte and Evers pounded the ball hard for Chicago, their hitting being mainly responsible for Chicago's runs.

Cheney pitched almost perfect ball up to the ninth.

St. Louis' only run came in the final inning on two singles, Cheney's error and a base on balls.

Mayor Kiel pitched the first ball after presenting Bresnahan with a diamond watch fob on behalf of the catcher's St. Louis admirers. The score:

Wasn't that a great crowd at White Sox park. Just think what a sight twenty-eight thousand people crowded into one enclosure must have made. Doubtful whether the Roman Coliseum ever had a bigger crowd out to make a Roman holiday. The crowd was a magnificent tribute both to the popularity of the grand old game and to that prince of good fellows and square men, Charles A. Comiskey. No doubt whatever as to which team is going to be the big noise in the Windy City this year. It pays to be square with players and public, don't it, Mr. Murphy.

Nice day for Bresnahan. In addition to getting a hit he was reminded that he is pretty well thought of in the Mount City despite the efforts of the Cardinal's suffragette head to discredit him. That diamond watch fob was deserved and should have been presented when he was giving his best efforts to make a winner out of a hopeless tailender. Saler's return to the game was most auspicious, leading the team at the bat. Archer will now go behind the bat and the team will be strengthened fifty per cent. Roger is a great catcher but is slowing up a bit and Jimmy is the best in the business, so there you are.

LETTER FROM THE SOUTH.

Mount Dora, Fla., 4-14-13.
Dear Journal and Friends:

We want to write one more letter from this place and if we do, it must be done at the present time, for we are beginning to pack our trunk and Mrs. McCarty is as busy as a bee, filling the corners, and we will be on the move again in a few days.

We want to tell you something of the conditions down here that our friends who are contemplating coming may have some idea of what they will find. This is no place for a young man who has no money, to lay the foundation for colossal fortune. There is not much work in the country and the negroes do the biggest part of it. The only chance we see for a white man is the field of speculation. If one with money can commence in a town like Eustis or Saint Petersburg and do clean real estate business, there is no doubt but what he can get a good addition to his pile in a few years; provided that all things go right and he is far-sighted and shrewd. The trouble is to be sure that you settle in a town that is well located and is not only able to stand a boom but is ready and willing to help start it.

We and many well located towns that could stand booms of the largest size but are handicapped by a class of men who want the earth and then some. These towns are shriveling up, going down instead of improving. Sometimes this is caused by northern men who buy the best parts of a small town and go back home expecting their purchases to make them rich in a few years, never thinking that they had dealt the town and its surrounding country a death blow. You hear of the great facilities for gardening, there may be such places but we have not found them. We talked with a man yesterday who told us that down at Miami one could raise great quantities of vegetables but there was no market for them. The fruit is limited to the orange, grape fruit, tangerine and Kumquat. The apple, peach, pear and grape have no standing here, there are some few people who are trying to raise the peach but one glance at a peach orchard down here will convince anyone that this will never be the home of the peach.

You also think that strawberries are growing along the highways and all one would have to do to have strawberries and cream would be to carry a bottle of cream. You miss; there are very few berries grown in these parts and you will believe us when we tell you that for all the berries we have had this winter we paid 25c a quart. We have had plenty of mulberries; we commenced on them about the middle of February and they are plentiful yet. We also had a mess of blackberries yesterday. They grow wild in great plenty.

Now for the orange business. We have studied this problem pretty thoroughly, made many inquiries of growers and non-growers and we find that you can find out as much about the orange business by asking an orange grower questions as you can the fishing in certain localities by asking a fisherman questions on quantity, quality and size. So we have made up our mind that the orange business is not lucrative, nevertheless an orange grove is a nice property to own, the fruit is delicious and healthful and then you can lay for a sucker from the north and unload on him and plant another for the same purpose.

Now dear friends do not jump to the conclusion that we are pessimistic toward Florida, for we are not; we are willing to give to the south all that is rightfully coming to her. There is one thing down here that no one can fool you on and that is climate, and you could spell it with a big "C" and still be in the bounds of perfect truth. We believe that people can come down here and reap great benefits in health, satisfaction in health, recreation is health, the soft balmy air of this country means health, the change of scenery and the different ways of the people all go to make one feel much improved after a sojourn of a few months in this country, especially the winter months.

We believe our northern friends would derive much more benefit out of a sojourn down here if they did not expect quite such big returns; another great drawback to their pleasure is the fact that they try to hold on to both ends of the string all the time, their bodies in the south and their minds in the north. Those who do this kind of resting will never receive the full benefit of a winter spent in the south. To make a success of a winter down here and receive a full value for your mind is to give up all business at home and take an interest in your surroundings just as though you were a citizen of the land. Another mistake some of our northern friends make is coming down here to spend their time in hotels and boarding houses. There are very few people who can be satisfied with this kind of a life, especially among our country bred people. Although the hotels are up-to-date and the boarding houses are all that one could wish, one gets tired and wants to be alone. Then light housekeeping comes in as a necessity for the comfort and peace of mind of the family. Should we succeed in getting home we will lay a plan before our friends that, if carried out, will enable them to spend the winter down here in peace and quietness for one-half the money they would ordinarily pay.

It was our intention at the beginning of this letter to give you a report of our doings while located in this place. We have not done anything that will not bear the light. The first thing is to go to church where you become acquainted with the best people of the community. If they need any help we pitch in and do what we can. We have been attending two churches here, the Congregational and M. E., where we have become acquainted with two very intelligent ministers and a host of good people. We walk a great deal and that brings us good appetites that we enjoy. They are expensive but we would not care to do without them.

After Mrs. McCarty becomes acquainted with ladies of the town so that we can leave her without her getting lonesome, we take long trips on foot for the purpose of seeing the country and keeping our muscles up to the standard. We have also took up fishing, this is another sport that Mrs. McCarty refuses to assist in; any part except to fry and help eat the catch and we are willing to give her credit of doing her part exceedingly well; we will also give her credit for carrying our con on one occasion, while we caught live minnows for bait, but she was well paid for that morning's work by us getting her a rare flower at the risk of drowning ourselves. It was a large flower, the size of a glass tumbler of pure white, fine scent and of a very peculiar formation. We did not know that it was a rarity in the flower family until we met a dozen tourists on the lake shore who were going to board a boat for Eustis, the lady in front threw up her hands and exclaimed, "Oh! A Saint John Lily, one of the rarest and most beautiful flowers in Florida."

Each lady must take it in her hands and put it to her nose and make many comments on its beauty and sweetness. They advised Mrs. McCarty to have it photographed so that they all could have a copy, but she did not but pressed it and will bring it to Illinois where it will be on show for our friends.

We could spin some good fish yarns but they are so common and people are accustomed to taking them with so much salt that we hesitate to let ourselves out, nevertheless we will give you a couple of our experiences and you can guess at the others.

One day we were fishing on Lake Gertrude but had no live bait and our luck was out. We met a couple of bright boys who had plenty of live bait and a boat, but no oars, and their fishing ground was a mile and then some on the lake. We made a bargain with these good little fellows we would scull the boat with us live bait; we did our part well and with much labor and perspiring we arrived at the place where the boys said there was plenty of fish, they baited their hooks and were so kindly attached to us that they baited our hooks also, and gave us to understand that they could attend to our boat all the time if we would manage the boat.

This suited us and we commenced to fish, our little partners began pulling in the live bass until the bottom of the boat was covered and we had never a bite. We scratched our head and set our thinker going but was too dull to catch on until it was time to go home. We found that we had been played for a sucker, when our good little friends baited our hook they put on a dead minnow and you know a bass will not take dead bait hence our bad luck. We have always prided ourselves on being a good loser, so said nothing to the boys that would put a damper on their enjoyment. They had as many fish as they could carry and while stringing them one of the boys said: "Mr. how many have you in family?" We said only two, he replied: "That's easy, Clayton," and proceeded to lay out as many good fish as he thought would make a good mess for two and the little fellow was liberal for we had fish for supper and breakfast and the experience as worth as much as the fish.

Our other experience was of a different nature and no one was to blame for our trouble but ourself, but the experience was rich and the price high.

One afternoon we were fishing on one of the piers for bass, but they were not hungry and we decided, about four o'clock to get into a boat and go up the lake shore about one and a half miles to a place called the "Lilypad Field" where the catfish harbored. We left our pole on the pier and went to the boathouse about one hundred feet distance to launch the boat which we did without any trouble. The custom down here is to put out a line at the stern of your boat, this is called trolling. We wanted to do a little better so decided to put out a line from the bow and troll with out pole this would give us two chances, so we put a nice live bait on our bow line and cast it out before shoving off. We rowed up to the pier to get our pole but the boat would not stand. She would toss her head and shie away from the pier so that we tied her up until we were ready. Now we have always thought and think it was that a sane man row boat just a little better than the average land-lubber and our course lay directly in front of the town where many people would have the opportunity seeing our maneuvers, so we decided to do our prettiest rowing.

We turned the boat loose and seated ourselves, but before we could get the oars properly placed she was drifting out toward the middle of the lake and with all our nice rowing we could not overcome this drift, but had to hit a few extra licks with one oar. We studied the problem and came to the conclusion that one oar was longer than the other and decided to change, while we were doing this the boat turned completely around and we were greatly provoked. The change done no good and we rowed around a point of timber out of sight of any one and stopped in some saw grass. We were sweating like the proverbial nigger at the election. Our hands blistered and our good humor spoiled. We decided to fish a while where we were and threw out a pole and then we remembered our bow-line and proceeded to put a fresh bait on it, but when we put our hand on that line we knew that we had been played once more for a sucker, there as a twelve pound nigger hooked and he could pull like a horse we had a good time landing him and felt much better when we saw him inside the boat. He had been the cause of all our trouble. We did go over to the Lilypad Field and hooked a six pound catfish, the for home and we assure you that we came down the line in good style and docked our boat in as good shape as one could wish.

Now you can see that a fellow never gets too old to learn and we hope our experience will be of benefit to others.

Hoping this will find all well and the sun shining in old Morgant we are as usual etc etc.
D. K. and Mrs. McCarty.

Every Home Needs This Fine Remedy

A Mild, Reliable Laxative-Tonic is Something No Family Should Be Without.

No well-regulated home should be without a laxative for there is scarcely a day in a family of several persons that someone doesn't complain of a headache, or sleeplessness, or show the first signs of a cold. A laxative then becomes a necessity or what was a trifling congestion at the beginning may run into a serious cold or fever. No harsh remedy is needed, but simply a mild laxative-remedy that will make the liver active and stir up the bowels. People who have tried a great many things, and are themselves heads of families who have seen the little pills run to big ones; will tell you that there is nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size.

Among the great believers in Syrup Pepsin for constipation in old or young, and as a general household emergency remedy, is Mrs. J. W. Anderson, Oswatimie, Kan., who writes after using one sample bottle and two dollar bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. "On the plea of the duty that every one owes to fellow sufferers, I appeal to all such who are bowed in spirit, broken in health and discouraged with life, not to give up until they have given Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a fair trial." Syrup Pepsin is scientifically compounded and its purity is vouched for. Mothers give it to tiny babies, and grown people, taking a little larger amount, find it equally effective. It is mild and gentle, pleasant-tasting and free from griping. It does not hide behind a high sounding name and is absolutely free from any prohibited ingredient. Families who once use Syrup Pepsin forever after avoid cathartics, salts, pills and other harsh medicines, for these only do temporary good, are nauseous and a shock to any delicate system. Such things should never be given to children. If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

HOW THE CONCLAVE VOTES FOR A POPE

Outline of Ancient and Great Ceremony in Selection of New Head of Roman Catholic Church.

Paris, April 17.—The next papal conclave at Rome has become a subject of pregnant interest to the entire Catholic world, not only from a spiritual, but also from a political point of view. The following is an outline of the many peculiar and ancient details of the great ceremony by which the new head of the church is selected.

In the first place the occupant of the holy see is subjected, at the trying moment when his soul is about to be required of him, to formalities that are elaborately laid down and which see very much at variance with the closing scene of a human life. In the presence of the members of the sacred college the sacristan bishop administers the viaticum and extreme unction. The grand penitentiary gives the absolution. The penitential psalms are then intoned. The expiring pontiff, if he have strength to do gives his benediction to the assembly, and the dirge of the mortuary hymns continues to the end. The Camerlingo of the Vatican, in order to make the official record of the death, takes up a small silver hammer, with which he strikes three light blows on the dead man's head, and calls on him by his Christian name.

Nine days after the death of the pope the conclave meets to choose his successor. The gathering takes its name from the fact that the cardinals are locked up in "conclave" and shut off from all communication with the outer world. The next conclave will be the first to meet in the huge building constructed several years ago in the rear of the vatican palace, and which is known as the palace of the conclave. The palace has 200 rooms, distributed among 79 apartments, each of which will constitute the accommodations needed for one of the cardinals when all come together to elect a pope.

On the day of the conclave all are summoned from their rooms by a bell thrice rung, and repair to the assembly chamber. From this moment until the result of the voting is announced they have no communication save with the vatican officials. Their clothing and even their food is searched, lest they should contain correspondence from outside.

After a night of seclusion the conclave is formally assembled early next afternoon, and all repair to the chapel, where a desk has been provided for each cardinal. In the middle of the hall are six tables and behind these an altar. Immediately in front of the altar, is a table, on which are two chalices for holding the ballots. Before proceeding further, a search is made to assure the conclave of the fact that none but those entitled to vote are present.

Each cardinal writes the name of the candidate he would elect, in the center of the voting ticket. This is of an oblong form, prepared according to the directions of the bull of Gregory XV. At the foot of the altar the voter lifts up his hand and exhibits the ticket between his thumb and finger. He then kneels and prays for a moment, after which he takes oath that he is about to elect him whom, according to God, he thinks ought to be elected. He then puts the ticket on the paten and slips it from thence into the chalice, which he covers up again. Then he makes anew a reverence before the altar and returns to his place.

When all have voted in like manner the six tellers examine the papers and proclaim the result. If no cardinal has obtained the required number of votes—two-thirds of the number of cardinals present—the result is declared void, and the voting papers, collected together, are burned in a brazier with damp straw, the dense smoke from which issues through a particular chimney, visible from the outside and proclaims to the outer world that no election has taken place.

Heretofore the burning of the ballots has closed the session of the day, and the conclave has adjourned until evening. Four years ago, however, Pope Pius X. introduced an important change in the method of electing his successor. Instead of having but two ballots each day the new ruling provides for four ballots, two in the morning and two in the evening. Thus the conclaves in future are expected to take just half the time occupied during the last seven centuries.

Proceeding with the election by ballot, voting is continued on the line indicated until a choice is reached. The result is then announced by the ringing of a bell and all the senior cardinals advance to the place occupied by the newly chosen pontiff and inquire if he accepts the election. On receiving an affirmative answer, he is at once saluted by the entire college. Then new pope then retires to robe himself in the pontifical vestments. On his return the fisherman's ring is placed on his finger and the new vicar of Christ gives his first solemn benediction to the members of the sacred college from the steps of the altar.

SOUTHERN TAX CONFERENCE.

Richmond, Va., April 17.—Delegates appointed by the governors of all the southern states assembled in Richmond today and entered upon a two day discussion of the subject of taxation. The conference will endeavor to arrive at the best method for getting an equal distribution of the burdens of taxation, the proper portion to be borne by the cities and counties independent of the state and the merits of the segregation of taxes so that the state shall receive certain funds and pay certain claims against the state, leaving the various cities and counties free to make their own assessments and to pay their own expenses of every sort.

Woodson was represented in the conference by Miss Sadie Crane, Miss Leta Megginson, Miss Zilla Crane, Miss Alice and Kate Lorgan and Wilbur Kitter.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle Is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, allays all fear, banishes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, free in body and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should. The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and a place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women, hence Mother's Friend is really one of the greatest blessings that could be devised. This splendid and certain remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and is sure to prove of inestimable value, not only upon the mother, but upon the health and future of the child. Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 132 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

BETTERMENT OF FEELING ABROAD IS EVIDENCED

DOMESTIC INFLUENCES HAVE LARGELY COUNTERACTED THE EFFECT OF IMPROVEMENT

Reduction of Bank of England's Rate Was Reinforced by the Strong Weegly Statement of the Banks of England and Germany.

(By Associated Press)
New York, April 17.—In the stock market evidences of genuine betterment in feeling abroad recently have been plentiful, the most direct and positive being steady absorption of securities here for foreign account during the last fortnight. Domestic influences have largely counteracted the effect of the improvement abroad, so that this market has moved in an uncertain way, with frequent periods of depression, while the principal foreign markets have shown much confidence.

The reduction of the Bank of England's rate today, however, was evidence which could not be ignored. It was reinforced by the strong weekly statement of the banks of England and Germany, the former's proportion of reserves to liabilities having now been brought up nearly to 48 per cent.

Bankers were of the opinion that the reduction in the official rate of Bank of Germany and the Bank of France was not improbable.

At home call money was easier; time funds for shot dates also were easier, long dates being upheld by the strength of the market for commercial paper. Easing off of call funds is due largely to stagnation of the stock market and should speculation become active, it is the opinion of the bankers that the effect would be registered in an immediate tightening of funds.

The effect of the day's developments was registered in the stock market by an inquiry from the short interest which was sufficient to advance prices generally. There was some buying of investment stocks, but the chief demand seemed to come from bear traders whose confidence was shaken by lowering of the foreign bank rate and evidence that the short interest was again over-extended.

BANKERS' SIDE OF "FARM CREDITS."

Alexandria, La., April 17.—Just what the farmer is to expect from the banker, formed the basis of a spirited discussion at the opening here today of the Louisiana Bankers' association annual convention. In an address on "The Bankers' Broad Shoulders," Henry V. Broussard declared that because banks will not advance money on a second mortgage on a second rate, one horse, run down farm at the same interest rate as is charged for the same service to the man who hands in gilt edged security that can be sold in one minute by telephone without moving from a desk, it seems that the banker is singled out as a loan shark a thousand times worse than Shylock. In conclusion Mr. Broussard declared that the farmers had always received a square deal from the bankers and that the present agitation is based more on considerations of sentiment than business.

DR. WATSON W. GAILEY TELLS OF HIS TRIP THROUGH EUROPE

Brother of Dr. B. S. Gailey of Jacksonville Met Dr. Friedmann While in Old Country.

While on a tour of Europe it was the privilege of Dr. Watson W. Gailey of Bloomington, a brother of Dr. B. S. Gailey of this city, to meet Dr. Friedmann, whose cure for tuberculosis has attracted world wide attention. Dr. and Mrs. Gailey recently returned to their home in Bloomington, after a six months' stay abroad.

Dr. and Mrs. Gailey sailed from New York October 26, last, for Naples, Italy, spending three weeks in the Italian cities of Naples, Rome, Florence and Venice, on their way to Vienna, Austria. Dr. Gailey entered the largest of the Austrian hospitals and spent two and one-half months in work. Later they spent a month in Berlin, where Dr. Gailey was also in a hospital. The usual cities of the tour were visited and a last stop for work was made at Moorfields hospital at London, where Dr. Gailey remained five weeks.

In a recent issue the Bloomington Pantagraph has the following regarding the doctor's tour:

Stay in Vienna.
"In Vienna, the Allgemeines Krankenhaus, an immense old hospital, has what is acknowledged to be the largest clinic in the world. The foreign hospitals give far more of their time and attention to the poor than do the American hospitals. There are such vast number of the poorer element in the foreign cities that the government considers them, and makes plans for their care at the big wards. The old world is far ahead of the new in its care for the poor, and the establishment of its free clinics. The American buildings are more handsome, but the old ones are mammoth in size and there are many of the finest surgeons whose work is done entirely in the hospital buildings, who have given up all private practice and receive their patients in the rooms of the hospital only."

"Dr. Gailey had the privilege of working with Dr. Fuchs, the greatest of eye surgeons, and with Dr. Elschnig of Prag, Bohemia, and at Berlin with Dr. Haller and Dr. Killian whose names are the most famous in Europe. He saw in clinic the work of transplantation of eye cornea, one of the wonders of surgery that is still in its infancy and upon which the world's best are giving their thought. In this, the cornea of the eye of a rabbit is transplanted to the human eye, with perfect results."

Met Dr. Friedmann.
"Dr. Gailey met and became acquainted with Dr. Friedmann, whose cure for tuberculosis has set the world to watching him and whose New York visit has attracted thousands of tuberculosis victims from all over this country. Dr. Gailey saw three of the Friedmann cases, two of these were a case of bone tuberculosis in a child. The case was one far advanced and at a point where amputation was considered necessary to prolong the patient's life. At the Moorbit hospital in Berlin, he saw Dr. Friedmann in private clinic."

War in the Air.
"Dr. Gailey says that war is in the air all over Europe. He found it in Austria, where war is said by the residents to be certain. The Austrian army was at the border, at the time the American visitors were there, but war talk was constant. Prices were gradually going up and the feeling of unrest was everywhere. Germany, France and Austria are confident of war. They feel that they are being forced into it and that it is sure to come. Perhaps not this year. Not until the Balkan trouble is settled, but the war of the continent they are assured will come. While in England Dr. Gailey had a chance to know what the English house of commons was at that time doing and found that their talk was all of war and the discussion was whether or not France would stay with them in the encounter which they were fearing would come."

"At a visit to Versailles in France while looking at the beauties of the place, they were aroused by the sound of guns and the blare of bugle and trumpets. They saw a regiment of soldiers meeting another regiment in sham battle, in practice that they believed was destined to be later needed. War is believed to be inevitably coming."

The Suffragettes.
"One of the unusual incidents seen by Dr. Gailey in London was a meeting of suffragettes in Hyde park. Five hundred 'bobbies' surrounded a wagon upon which were seated the women speakers in the cause of suffrage. Around the wagon was a crowd of 10,000 or 15,000 people. The women spoke and were constantly assailed by clouds and decayed vegetables. One woman while speaking was struck square on the mouth by a cloud of dirt. She apparently did not notice it. Then a tomato struck her face and streamed down it. She wiped off the dirt and continued her speech and spoke for half an hour; constantly struck by dirt and by decayed vegetables of all kinds. When the addresses were over the police took the wagon through the crowd but when the women alighted on the walk, they were assailed by the mob, dragged about in the street, their clothes torn, and a mob hooted them down Oxford street."

The Zeppelin Air Ships.
"At Berlin the Zeppelin air ships are manufactured and there Dr. Gailey saw several of them in constant use about the city. They hold 65 persons and $50 is charged for a trip of four hours above the city in them. Their appearance is startling. As if a couple of big trolley cars had been attached to the cigar shaped balloon and were sailing through the air just escaping the tops of the highest buildings—and these are five stories high—for Berlin does not build them higher. They make the trip from Berlin to Dusseldorf in less time than the express trains."

Listen! Mrs. Briggs at Odd Fellows Temple tonight.

MRS. WM. ARCHER

Tells Mothers What to Do For Delicate Children.

"My fourteen year old daughter was very thin and delicate. She had a bad cough so that I became very much alarmed about her health. She was very nervous and did not sleep well, had very little appetite and doctors did not help her. Having heard so much about Vinol, I decided to give it a trial. It has helped her wonderfully. She can sleep all night now without coughing once in fact her cough is gone. Her appetite is greatly improved and she has gained in weight. Vinol is a wonderful medicine and I will always keep it in the house. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children." Mrs. Wm. Archer, Long Branch, N. J.

This delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil is a wonderful body builder and strength creator for both young and old. We promise to give back your money in every case where Vinol does not benefit. This shows our faith in Vinol. Lee P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

GEORGE BIRD FOUND DEAD NEAR CONCORD

DEATH WAS CAUSED BY BULLET WOUND IN BREAST.

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict Attributing Death to Gunshot Wound Inflicted Either By Himself Or Some Unknown Party.

Lying at the side of the right-of-way of the Burlington Route just inside the Morgan county line north of Concord, trainmen on the early southbound passenger Thursday morning found the body of George Bird, with a gunshot wound in the left breast. The coroner's jury returned a verdict attributing death to a gunshot wound inflicted either by himself or some unknown party.

Members of the train crew on the northbound Burlington passenger Wednesday night saw a man lying at the side of the tracks, but supposed that he was asleep. They reported the matter on their arrival at Beardstown, however, and Conductor D. I. McCarthy on southbound passenger No. 12, due in this city at 6:57 a. m., was given an order to look for the man Thursday. They had instructions and permission of the coroner to remove the body to Concord.

On seeing that the body bore a gunshot wound in the left breast, the trainmen were of the opinion that the matter should be investigated further and proceeded on to Concord, leaving the body where it was found, in charge of the station agent from Arenzville.

Sill Laughary, section foreman from Concord, was sent to bring the remains of the deceased to that place, having permission of the coroner to do so. He found the body as the trainmen had left it and brought it and a .38 caliber revolver, which was lying a short distance away, to Concord. Coroner Wright, Deputy Coroner J. G. Reynolds and Sheriff Rogers went to Concord Thursday morning and the following jury was empaneled by the coroner: W. H. Williamson, foreman; H. B. Reutschler, Sidney Smith, Samuel Blumling, William T. Filson and Walter Wright, clerk. Conductor D. I. McCarthy, brakeman L. H. Liffritz, Section Foreman D. Sill Laughary and Edward Collins, who accompanied the deceased to this county from Tennessee, were the witnesses examined and the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death "by a gunshot wound either inflicted by his own hand or that of some unknown party."

Conductor McCarthy testified that he found the remains of the man lying on his right side, facing the east and that he and the brakemen examined him and it looked as though the deceased had been shot through the left breast. According to Mr. McCarthy the body was lying in the ditch about six feet from the main track. The testimony of Conductor McCarthy was corroborated by brakeman L. H. Liffritz.

Sill Laughary, section foreman for the Burlington at Concord, testified substantially as follows: "About 6:57 o'clock Thursday morning I received an order from the agent at Concord to go to Arenzville and pick up the remains of George Bird, permission having been received from the coroner. I searched the body and found a watch, a purse containing $9.00 and about fifteen steps away I found his gun. One empty shell was in the pistol and when I broke the gun the shell was directly over the barrel. There were three loaded cartridges in the pistol, all of which had been snapped. I picked the man up and brought the body to Concord."

Edward Collins of Tate Springs, Tenn., testified that he had lived with the deceased for six years and that he knew Bird's family. "We came to Concord on the 12:08 train Sunday," continued Collins, "and the general supposition is that Bird was indicted for carrying concealed weapons, which is a state offense in Tennessee, the penalty being a $50 fine and six months in jail. When we were on our way here he told me that he supposed he was indicted for carrying a pistol, and also for gambling. He also said that he expected trouble on account of being drunk, all three of these offenses taking place at the same time. About three weeks ago Sunday Bird and another man had a quarrel, talked rather roughly and Bird changed his gun from his belt to his side coat pocket. The man was called before the grand jury and Bird thought that his testimony was the result of his indolence and he thought he had better get away, as it would cost so much to get matters straightened."

"We remained in Concord until evening and went to Henry Welch's residence where we stayed Sunday and Monday nights. Tuesday we went to look for work and hired to Eli McCarthy, after which we went to Arenzville and then returned to Concord. Bird said that he was going to get his suit case and then was going to McCarthy's. That was the last time I saw him alive."

I had never seen this gun before, the gun he carried recently being a pearl handle Colt. He told me that he had a gun with him but he didn't tell me that he intended to commit suicide, but a year ago he told me that he would not stay in jail, and that he would kill himself before he would stay in jail."

The remains were brought to this city Thursday afternoon by Coroner Wright and Deputy Coroner Reynolds, being taken to the Reynolds undertaking establishment and his parents, who reside in Tennessee were notified. The deceased was about 23 years of age and is a nephew of E. A. Daniels who resides near Literberry.

ACTIVITY IS MANIFESTED
ALONG BUILDING LINE

Many New Dwellings Are Now Being Constructed—Thomas B. Reeve Is Erecting House and Store Apartments on South Main.

Considering the fact that some person predicted this year would be an off year in building, there are several structures going up in the city with the prospect of many more in the near future. The spring weather has been so bad that work has been greatly retarded.

Thomas B. Reeve is constructing a store room and dwelling at the corner of Greenwood avenue and South Main street at an approximate cost of $3,500. The store and house will be one building, the dwelling part to have eight rooms. The foundation is already in. William Farrington is the contractor.

Ellsworth Wells is building a house on West College street and it will be occupied by Ollie Parker.

Other buildings being erected on College street are the one to be occupied by Fred Kumble and the new eight room dwelling for A. B. Opperman, which is being fast completed.

In about a week work will be commenced on the new house to be erected by Capt. and Mrs. Alex Smith on their West State street property. H. B. Brady who occupied the house there which was destroyed by fire some months ago has arranged for a lease on the new structure.

Mention has already been made of the new home Walter Rice will erect on Mound avenue on the lot recently purchased from Mr. Galbraith. Work on the new nurses home is progressing satisfactorily as is the extensive remodeling at the Estaque garage. The big cracker factory and bakery of the Jenkinson company may be said to be nearing completion. These are by no means all the buildings under way.

MORTUARY

Kirk.

Mrs. John Kirk, aged 65 years died Wednesday at home in Carrollton. She was the mother of thirteen children, twelve of whom survive. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last fall, having been married September 5, 1862, when the bride was but fifteen years of age. The funeral was held Thursday.

Finn.

Thelma Finn, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Finn of Virginia, died Wednesday night in Los Angeles, Cal., where she and her mother were spending the winter. Pneumonia was the cause of death. The child was born Nov. 2, 1906 in Ashland, Ill. The body will be brought here for burial.

CHARGED WITH PERJURY.

Warrants for the arrest of Albert and Thomas Vanhynning, of Mercedosia, charging the men with perjury were sworn out before Squire W. T. Dyer Thursday morning by Clayton Hyatt of Mercedosia. Deputy Todd went to Mercedosia Thursday afternoon and returned with the men Thursday evening. They were taken before Squire Dyer and placed under bond for their appearance for trial April 25, at 9 o'clock. It is charged that the men were sworn in at the election and that they had not lived in their voting precinct the time required.

It is understood that the arrests are the result of a very close vote in the recent election in Mercedosia. The election was one of the most hotly contested in that town for a number of years and the present incumbent, Mayor J. G. Berger, was chosen by a majority of one vote over Dr. R. I. Estes. Another complexity of the election is the case of Edward Geiss, a newly elected alderman, whose election is being contested on a charge that he has not been a resident of the town for the period required by law for a man to hold office.

HELD INTERESTING CONTEST.

The singing and spelling contest held at Brooklyn church last night under the auspices of the Sunday school was well attended and interesting throughout. The first part of the program was the singing contest between the women and the men, the former winning. The judges were L. H. Whitlock, Mrs. Schaub and W. R. Moody. In the spelling contest the winner was Dr. George E. Stacey. He received a bronze medal. The latter part of the evening was spent in a social way with something good to eat.

BUYING SHOES AT HOME.

Buying shoes from samples at a local hotel is the latest method used in Jacksonville to take business away to other cities. The stocks shown by the local shoe merchants are such that the needs and tastes of all can readily be taken care of here at home. A visitor to Jacksonville recently commented upon the very extensive lines of shoes shown by stores here and expressed the opinion that the lines could not be excelled outside Chicago. As the average man or woman likes to try on about a dozen pairs of shoes before making a purchase it is not likely that a great many of residents here will find buying from sample shoes a very satisfactory method of purchasing their footwear.

CLUB HOLDS MEETING.

Members of the East Side Tuesday Club met at the home of Mrs. J. Marshall Miller on West North street. Piano music was furnished by Miss Jessie Wharton and Mrs. Miller presented a paper entitled: "How Do The Laws of Our State Protect Woman, Their Property Rights, Dowry, Children, Marriage and Divorce." The subject was presented in a very interesting and was followed with a profitable discussion. Following the program a social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served.

C. P. & ST. L. EMPLOYEES THINK SHOPS ARE CLOSED AS A THREAT

Story Circulated That City Has Offered Burlington Right of Way Which Would Mean Loss of Trackage Rent to C. P. & St. L.—Mayor Davis Says There's Absolutely Nothing to Report.

Since the C. P. & St. L. shops closed down unexpectedly a few days since notwithstanding the fact that work to be done is piling up there, rumors as to the cause for the order have been numerous. The one heard most frequently that the officials of Jacksonville have offered to provide a right of way for the C. P. & St. L. road along Illinois avenue and that the C. P. & St. L. management is aggrieved by this action. The story is that the offer of the city to the Burlington is of such terms that the road will likely accept it and that the C. P. & St. L. within a few months will lose the patronage which it now gets from the Q. by renting its tracks on Illinois avenue to that road. Further it is stated that the C. P. & St. L. management in retaliation directed against Jacksonville might close the shops here permanently and thus throw two hundred men out of employment.

Such credence has been given the story by employees of the C. P. & St. L. shops that a committee of three of them waited upon Mayor Davis to enter a protest and to express the hope that the city would not grant such rights to the Burlington as would lessen the revenues of the C. P. & St. L. The committee told Mayor Davis that they had been informed that he had written the letter to the Burlington officials outlining the concessions that would be made in the matter of right of way. Mayor Davis replying to the committee said that there was absolutely no foundation to the report and that neither he nor any member of the council had made any offer to the Burlington nor had any correspondence with the road officials about the matter. He expressed the surprise at the report and said he could not imagine where it originated.

Last night when asked about the matter Mayor Davis spoke of the committee waiting upon him and also said that the council had no intention of making any concessions to the Burlington whatever. He said the last conversation he had with any of the officials was months ago when he and the commissioners went to Chicago for a conference. Since that time he said he had not met or written to Burlington officials. Meanwhile C. P. & St. L. employees are wondering why the shops are closed down.

PERFECT PLANS FOR BANQUET.

Members of Board of Anti-Tuberculosis Society Meets Thursday.

Members of the board of the Morgan County Society for the prevention of Tuberculosis held a meeting at the Public Library Thursday afternoon at which plans for the annual banquet and meeting April 24, were perfected. Dr. R. O. Post, Dr. A. L. Adams, Dr. Grace Dewey and Mrs. C. E. Black were named as a nominating committee for the annual business meeting, which will follow the banquet. The executive board, officers of the society and a committee to be appointed by the State Street Church will act as a reception committee at the meeting.

The proceeds from the banquet will be used for the Free Clinic. The meeting is not for the purpose of soliciting funds, but to get the membership and friends of the movement together in order to present the work to them. A report of the past year's work will be made and plans will be made for the coming year's work.

John C. Andrus of Manchester was a business visitor in Jacksonville yesterday.
